Background

Levi Winkle is a senior consultant at Elysium Digital, specializing in intellectual property litigation including cases involving patents, trade secrets, and copyright. He has worked on a variety of technologies in this role, spanning cases including source code review, prior art searches, and software valuations. Levi has built expertise in Linux and SQL through administration of Oracle databases containing over 100 terabytes of litigation evidence and has experience programming with Python, C++, and more. Levi's current areas of research include the effects of Generative AI on IP litigation.

Levi graduated magna cum laude with a B.S.E. in computer science from the University of Michigan. His studies at Michigan included areas such as artificial intelligence, human-computer interaction, and computer vision. While at Michigan, Levi worked with an accessibility-focused team to build a gesture-controlled entertainment application for a child with cerebral palsy.
